“Our staff and board appreciated the outside perspective Meredith and Sara brought to the table, but were equally impressed by their understanding of IPMN’s historical successes and challenges. Our strategic planning session was a wonderfully collaborative experience!”

Heather Ring,

Minnesota

“Meredith Kennedy has provided invaluable expertise and assistance to Innocence Project Northwest’s structural change process. Meredith’s research, consultations, and gifted facilitation helped ensure this [effort] was approached in a thoughtful and informed way that has achieved the support of our stakeholders.”

Anna Tolin,
Executive Director
Innocence Project
Northwest

“Without Sara’s guidance we would never have pulled off our year-end email appeal, which brought in some desperately needed funds for our program.”

Paula Mitchell,
Executive Director
Loyola Law School
Project for the Innocent

“As a small nonprofit, having the NSU as a resource for expert advice and assistance is a real luxury. Whether it is board training, a staff retreat, or my many fundraising and communications questions, the members of the NSU have always been exceedingly prompt, knowledgeable, and totally professional.”
